It is a common belief that science is responsible for the frequent, highly destructive twentieth century wars. The last century witnessed two extremely disastrous global wars. Even the debris of the first war had not been cleared when the second broke out. And this war proved more devastating than the first. It was towards the end of this war that Americans dropped atom bombs over Hiroshima and Nagasaki completely effacing the two towns from the world map. Since the twentieth century was also the age when science attained the highest stage of its development, a suspicion naturally creeps into the minds of the people that there is some vital co-relation between science and war.
